Crew Profile

Captain: Ifan

Captain Ifan has led Lamima since her launch over 10 years ago. With more than 20 years at the helm of Southeast Asia's most iconic yachts, he is a pioneer of high-end cruising in Indonesia, having captained the country's first expedition vessel and charted remote dive sites that revealed new marine species.

Known for his calm confidence, expert seamanship, and playful humour, he creates an atmosphere of professionalism and ease on board.

Guests are drawn to his warmth and storytelling. When not at sea, he enjoys hiking and reading — always curious, always learning.

Cruise Director: Ali

Ali is the heart of every Lamima adventure. As Cruise Director and certified dive instructor, he blends professionalism, energy, and deep local knowledge. With over 5,000 dives logged across Indonesia, he knows these waters like few others.

From beach picnics and jungle treks to world-class dives, Ali's passion for marine life, wildlife, and culture turns each day into a discovery.

Guests love his bright spirit, attention to detail, and playful nature — making every moment on board memorable.

Chief Officer: Rizky

Rizky has been with Lamima since her completion in 2014, rising from deckhand to Chief Officer — a testament to his dedication and love for life at sea. Known for his trademark introduction, "My name is Rizky, but you can call me Whisky!", he's unforgettable.

Beyond managing sails, he has a gift for photography and film, capturing and editing beautiful moments that guests treasure long after their voyage. With Rizky on board, every journey is infused with joy and creativity.

Second Officer: Dedi

Born in Ara, a village famed for traditional boatbuilding, Dedi grew up with the sea in his blood. Choosing his own course, he trained in maritime navigation and went on to captain smaller vessels across Indonesia before joining Lamima.

Now Second Officer, he combines skill and passion in every aspect of life at sea. Off duty, his easygoing nature shines through — whether playing football or leading a singalong.

LAMIMA

Chief Stewardess: Eka

Originally from Bali, Eka brings heart and elegance to Lamima's interior. With years of hospitality experience and a signature smile, she leads the stewarding team with energy and genuine warmth that guests — especially children — instantly feel.

Her natural ability to connect with people makes everyone on board feel welcome and cared for. A skilled Balinese dancer, she loves sharing her culture and laughter, adding a personal and joyful touch to every voyage.

Steward 1: Mufid

Mufid, from Magelang in Central Java, began his career in tourism in 2016, building experience in hospitality and food & beverage.

He recently joined Lamima and is passionate about delivering excellent service and creating memorable guest experiences.

In his free time, he enjoys singing and staying active through sports.

Steward 2: Agung

The youngest member of our crew, Agung brings fresh energy, genuine care, and a joyful spirit to every Lamima voyage. Originally from Bali, he has an instinct for anticipating guests' needs — often helping before you even ask.

His bright presence, love of singing, and skill as a Balinese dancer bring an uplifting sense of fun to the boat. Whether assisting guests or sharing a song, Agung's warmth and authenticity make every journey unforgettable.

Steward 3: Chris

Originally from Bali, Chris brings years of hospitality experience to Lamima. Friendly and quick with a smile, he's a favorite among guests — especially children, who love the fun drinks and snacks he prepares. Talented and full of energy, Chris is known for juggling, breakdancing, and crafting cocktails that suit each guest's taste. Whether mixing a sunset drink or entertaining on the beach, he brings fun and flavor to every voyage.

LAMIMA

First Deckhand: Bambang

Originally from Java, Bambang is a skilled marine carpenter whose craftsmanship can be seen in many of Lamima's wooden details. Part of the crew for eight years, he combines traditional skills with precise tender-driving, ensuring guests travel to and from shore with ease.

Calm, resourceful, and friendly, Bambang is also the talent behind our beach BBQs, adding thoughtful touches that reflect true Indonesian hospitality.

Second Deckhand: Man

From Ara, Sulawesi — a village known for traditional boatbuilding — Man began as a marine carpenter in Bali before joining Lamima. Nicknamed the “MacGyver of woodwork,” he’s valued for his skill in fixing almost anything with a clever solution and a smile.

Calm and friendly, Man keeps the yacht running smoothly and, in his free time, carves miniature wooden boats as a tribute to his heritage.

Third Deckhand: Andi

From Ara, Sulawesi — Indonesia's boatbuilding heart — Andi learned traditional craftsmanship building and refitting phinisi yachts before joining Lamima.

A skilled marine carpenter, he is invaluable during maintenance and, on charter, is calm, attentive, and always ready to help. His quiet presence ensures everything runs smoothly for guests throughout their voyage.

Dive Master: Martin

A native of Labuan Bajo, Martin has spent over 17 years diving Indonesia's reefs, islands, and hidden sites. His deep local knowledge makes every dive unique, while his easygoing nature creates a relaxed and safe experience for divers of all levels.

Out of the water, Martin's warmth shines through as he sings with the Lamima band or connects with local communities during village visits.

Head Chef: Yudha

Born between Java and Bali, Yudha brings passion and precision to Lamima's galley. With experience as an Executive Chef in Bali's high-end restaurants and five years as Head Chef aboard SY Silolona, he creates diverse menus from Indonesian feasts to Mediterranean and wellness-inspired dishes.

Always smiling and upbeat, Yudha is also a talented guitarist and singer, adding music and warmth to evenings on board.

Assistant Chef: Putu

Putu joined Lamima in 2021 after seven years as Head Chef aboard SY Arenui. Known for his mastery of Indonesian cuisine and bold Mexican flavors, he works alongside Chef Yudha to craft menus tailored to each guest.

Calm and friendly, Putu's passion shows in every dish he prepares. Off duty, he enjoys fitness and sharing a laugh — bringing the same fresh energy to life as he does to his cooking.

Masseuse & Yoga Instructor: Koko

Originally from Bali, Koko has been with Lamima since 2014. Trained at Chytra International, she brings over a decade of experience to her traditional Balinese massage treatments — a highlight for many guests after a day of adventure.

A certified yoga instructor, she also leads gentle sunrise yoga and meditation on deck. With her warm spirit and healing touch, Koko is at the heart of Lamima's wellness experience.

Masseuse: Dian

Dian originally from BALI, with a decade of experience brings wealth of spa experience to Lamima having works as professional masseuse in several high-resort across Indonesia.

Her calm presence and skilled hand offer guest a deeply relaxing and restorative experience.

Dian loves singing and is one of our favourite members of our Lamima music band.

Chief Engineer: Voengky

From Surabaya, Voengky brings technical expertise and professionalism to his role as Chief Engineer. A graduate of the merchant marine, he ensures every system below deck runs smoothly, supporting the comfort and safety of each voyage.

Dedicated and calm, he thrives on the challenge of maintaining a traditional yet modern yacht. Off duty, he enjoys singing with the crew and playing football.

Second Engineer: Bono

From Central Java, Bono began his career on merchant ships before moving to dive boats and sailing yachts, building strong technical skills and hands-on problem-solving.

As Lamima's Second Engineer, he ensures everything runs smoothly behind the scenes. Also a talented guitarist and singer, Bono — nicknamed after the U2 frontman — brings music and warmth to life on board.

Third Engineer: Surya

From Semarang in Central Java, Surya brings experience from commercial vessels and dive boats to Lamima's technical team.

As Third Engineer, he helps keep the yacht's systems running smoothly, ensuring a seamless and comfortable experience for guests. Off duty, he enjoys volleyball and football, adding energy and teamwork to life on board.

Electrician: Ade

Ade joined Lamima with strong technical skills built through electrical trade training and experience in yacht maintenance. He ensures everything from lighting to navigation runs smoothly and safely throughout each voyage.

Energetic and quick to assist, Ade is also a talented guitarist, often performing with the Lamima Band and bringing both precision and creativity to life on board.
