The Maj Oceanic

Traditional lines are redesigned with a modern touch. Aged teak wood, stainless steel, and tinted glass combine for a sleek, contemporary finish.

Exterior

Opulence defines the deck, a retreat that seamlessly blends extravagance with the calming essence of open-air serenity.

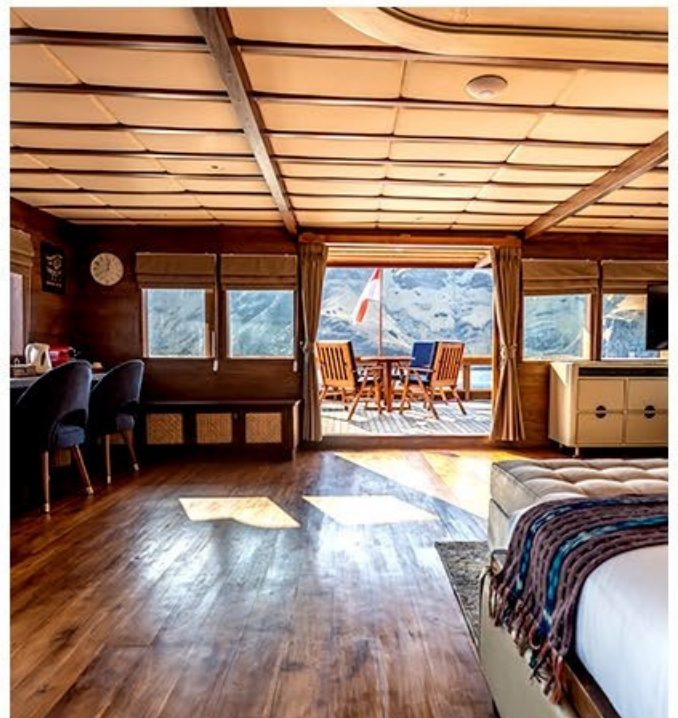

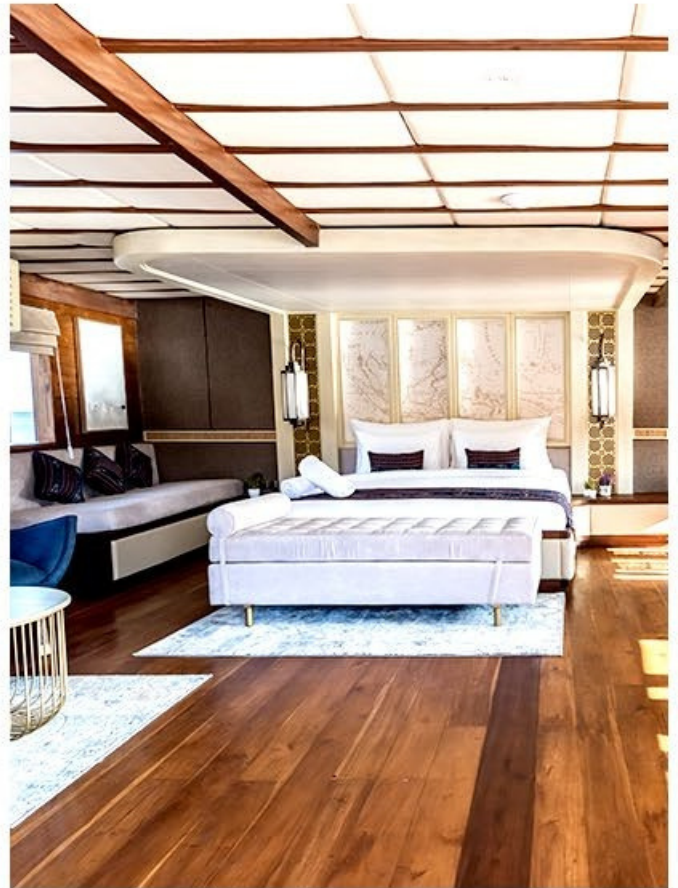

Interior

The interplay of light and shadow, combined with careful design, adds visual allure. Every detail, from textiles to furniture, creates an inviting and soothing atmosphere for introspection and relaxation.

Cabins

The large wrap-around windows draw your attention, framing panoramic views of the ever-changing ocean. Natural light floods the space, casting a gentle glow on the interior. It's as if the boundaries between the cabin and the outside world blur, allowing nature's beauty to become an integral part of the living space.

Activities

Every detail, from the choice of materials to the layout, contributes to the overall sense of tranquility and comfort within the cabin. It becomes a personal retreat, where one can escape the outside world and connect with the beauty of the sea and sky.
